

March 16, 2017 7-9pm

Maryland School for the Deaf will present its annual Faupel Performing Arts Club Spring Production: "Snow White Goes West."

"Snow White Goes West" is a stage adaptation of the traditional Snow White fairy tale with a Wild West Twist!

The spring production features high school students in a shared love for the theater under the direction of Rita Corey. Rita Corey is no stranger to the stage. She holds a MFA in directing from Catholic University of America in D.C., and has over 25 years of experience directing at both Maryland School for the Deaf and Gallaudet University.

"Snow White Goes West" is a stage adaptation of the traditional Snow White fairy tale with a Wild West Twist! Snow White, heiress to the 'Happy Ever After Cattle' ranch, is the fairest girl on the prairie – but her wicked and jealous stepmother, Widow Blackheart, plots to separate her from her fortune! Can Snow White survive her treacherous schemes and win the hand of Sheriff Vince Charming? A band of brave miners, her lifelong friend, Nanny Oakley, a pantomime horse and a fool, Silly Billie the Kid, are there to help her!

The approximate run time is 90 minutes and is open to all ages. Although the play is children and family friendly, toy prop guns and loud noises are a part of the show. There will be some audience participation.

All performances will take place at the Ely Auditorium on MSD Frederick campus: 101 Clarke Place, Frederick, MD 21701. Tickets are $12 for adults and $10 for children up to 12 years old. Tickets are available for reservations via email at FaupelPerformingArts@msd.edu or tickets can be purchased at the door upon availability before the show. All performances are signed in ASL with voice interpretation.
